

Group affine systems are a class of nonlinear systems on Lie groups whose error dynamics are autonomous—they depend only on the error, not on the absolute state. This property is the theoretical foundation for both geometric control and invariant filtering.